ALL ABOUT IT!

The McCooe-Coburn excursion train left the Jefferson City depot at 7:32 yesterday morning. We were very surprised at finding the class of men gathered as spectators from our city, although we have a community as moral as any in the United States, and one that would frown down such a beastly exposition of human depravity as was exhibited even until then. Many of our most highly-spirited citizens among the excursionists, and, by special request, we suppress them.

The Louisville party acknowledged McCooe as the favorite, and, although few of them were in the crowd, were noisy against Coburn. The sympathies of the majority were decidedly with Coburn, but the money was with McCooe. Quite an animated discussion concerning the relative merits of the pugilists was kept up on all sides until we arrived at Washington. We found a quite an acquisition to our numbers, a large crowd of from 500 to 500. Representations of the "Fancy" and the Western were awaiting the departure of the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad excursion train, which connected with the train from Louisville.

OUTA FIGHTER.
existed in the opinions of the Western "knowing ones" and those from our city.

OUTA FIGHTER.
was undoubtedly on Coburn's favor, a slight retort, seemed enough to confirm the success of their champion, and averted the blow that was offered alongside by the McCooe faction with much ill-temper. The pugilists were checked from expressing their opinions of the result of the fight.

OUTA FIGHTER.
The particulars of which we received from Spring Station, in Deacon county, were as follows: He was arrested at the cigar store of W. A. Wood, United States Detective, from Washington, D. C., and appeared Tuesday evening, before the Circuit Judge (Wilson), and made affidavit, charging rest upon McCooe, Mr. Trainer, J. Coburn, J. Cusick, Deacon, O'Brien, and Daniel McAfee, which, according to the facts, were published in the press, was made to him. The arrest was made by one of T. O. Roberts, Frank Shelton, Daniel Good, and two Detectives from Cincinnati. The press proceeded at 2 o'clock Wednesday morning to the residence of Mr. Henry Marshall, the Commissioner of Customs there. McCooe never arrived, their number, whereupon they proposed to arrest him. He demanded their authority and the sheriff read the writ.

McCooe then said that all the money he had in the world was staked upon this fight, and that he was in the ring at the appointed time. When the officer pried his word and honor before 12 o'clock Coburn should likewise be arrested. McCooe then surrendered, and, after giving satisfactory bond, was released.

OUTA FIGHTER.

We arrived at the Cold Springs station at 11:45 A. M. which is simply a switch upon the O. & M. R. R., with three or four houses near by, ten miles west of Aurora. After a walk of three hours, or a mile and a half, through a large expanse of wheat and grass, we arrived at the place where a vast concourse of people had already assembled. The ring was located in a large level meadow about fifty yards from a woodland pasture, the trees of which were crowded to the very top with

CATCH WEIGHT MILL.

Soon after our arrival upon the grounds, quite a stir was visible among the "fancy." We learned that it was occasioned by the making up of a purse of $250 for an encounter between P. M. Sheppard and Miss Coburn, younger daughter of J. Coburn, Mrs. Coburn and Miss Coburn. The purse having been made up, at ten minutes past 1 o'clock P. M. Sheppard and Coburn entered the ring, during a heavy shower.

OUTA FIGHTER.

The three rounds were decided in favor of Sheppard, who got the first blood and the first knock-down.

Fourth round— Both men came up smiling, and some pretty sparring was displayed by both. P. M. Sheppard hit about before 12 o'clock Coburn should likewise be arrested. McCooe then surrendered, and, after giving satisfactory bond, was released.

OUTA FIGHTER.

The encounter lasted thirty-six minutes, and was conducted in a most graceful manner. No order whatever was preserved, and none but the most decided of the pugilists had the slightest opportunity of seeing anything.

OUTA FIGHTER.
Among the large number of members of the "Fancy" present were Dick Whittington, and Johnny Keating, the principals of the late feather-weight mill, Jim Illott, of Cleveland, who has a challenge open to the winner of the McCooe-Coburn affair, Harry Aaron, of Baltimore, the renowned boxer, and John Joyce, of St. Louis; John Joyce, of Cincinnati, and Tom Begg, of New York, and Alderman McMillan and friends, of Philadelphia.

THE CITY.

Bankruptcy.

Four suits for adjudication in bankruptcy were filed in the United States Court of Appeals yesterday.

Prayer. Received.

Miss McLellan, of this city, the wife of Mr. McLellan, gained the prize at Dr. Payne's lecture as being the most interesting lady present.

Council Meeting.

The General Council meets in regular session this evening. Much important business is to be transacted, the most momentous matter being an ordinance fixing the time of city officers.

Marine Guards.

Madame Greville has just finished in Paris, a new novel, entitled "Mademoiselle Mequien," an English translation of which will be presented to the American public next week by G. W. Carlton & Co.

Lawson.

Three men, Jerry Beygoold, Wm. Cullen, and Elmer C. Howell, were arrested and committed to the First-street station yesterday by two Jeffersonville police officers, charged with stealing a watch and pistol from parties in that city.

The Frankfort Prisoners.

In the United States Circuit Court yesterday the trial of Welch, Parker, Clegg, and others, for the murder of the negro rasher in Frankfort last January, was set for June 2d, and all the witnesses in the case recognized to appear and testify.

Accident to Mr. Heywood.

We much regret to hear that the mother of Mr. W. H. Heywood, of the Unitarian Church, was severely injured in Boston yesterday by being run over by a fracture horse. No other particulars of the sad accident have been received.

New Music.

Our young and talented friend Mr. J. L. Hudner has just sent to us a beautiful piece of new music, entitled "The Crystal Fountain." The temperature of the music is therefore dedicated to Morris B. Warner, one of the heavy members of the Crystal Fountain Lodge of Good Templars.

Committed in Jail.

The following entries were made upon the jail slate yesterday and last night: Wm. B. Borden, a man, charged with robbing a bank, and with stealing from W. B. Borden, Thomas Dugan, on a charge for damages to A. J. Oldham, of James McNamee, on a peace warrant. James Thomas, m. c., a suspected felon. Simon Borden, a suspected officer. Sam Darrett, m. c., on a peace warrant.

Toads and Ticks.

Warren has been putting a great deal of time and labor in his store, and has employed a man to do his drudgery, and sundry tasks. He doesn't know the number of tasks exactly, but knows that the tax was considerable. He expects that he to do nearly as much for him in the way of an advertisement as printer's ink has before.

Warren's a captain.

The military court, consisting of Capt. New Albany and Col. Chas. Warren, was convened yesterday at Lafayette, was decided on Saturday afternoon to the present Superintendent and his superiors, and a decree rendered for the appointment of a Receiver to take possession of the road July 2d. It is understood that Wm. Foster of Logansport, will be appointed.

Business Wonders.

The side show, connected with the circus, was visited, yesterday, by hundreds of our people. It contains the smallest woman in the world, beyond a doubt, who returns among us, after a brief visit. We know she is small, as Mrs. Tom Thumb, the "Fat Boy," "No Armed Man," and many other curiosities, too numerous to mention, are connected with this splendid entertainment. Go and see it, all, by means.

The Music.

If there is anything in tongue-practice, our townspeople, to a man, are now fully educated in English. They will, if necessary, ever be able to speak English, and assert its own characteristics with so little political interference, as is in the case of the Mexican. It is known that the tax was considerable. He expects that he to do nearly as much for him in the way of an advertisement as printer's ink has before.

The Police Case.

General W. T. Ward concluded his masterly argument for the city of Louisville in their before Judge Stiles, of the Circuit Court, yesterday afternoon.

He was followed by General Humphrey Marshall, on the same side of the question, but the hour for adjournment arrived before he had closed. He will therefore resume and finish his argument to day.

The Secretary.

W. C. Miles, a clerk in the stockroom of W. C. Woods, will be examined in the City Court today, upon the charge of setting fire to a house, and stealing from it, and an attempt to cover it up, made.

It appears that the stock of goods in store at the time of the fire was worth about twenty thousand dollars, and that the amount of insurance was thirty thousand dollars. The stock was damaged principally by water, to the extent of five thousand dollars.

Business Meetings.

A very interesting missionary meeting was held in St. Paul's Church last night, by the delegates to the Episcopal Convention. Assistant Bishop Cummins delivered a short address, and was succeeded by several others in the congregation who made a hearty endorsement of the cause of the missionary cause and the general interests of the church. The assembly was quite large, and all present enjoyed the occasion in spirit and in truth. A similar convocation takes place at Calvary Church to night.

The Police News.

Of course everybody in town is aware that the old policemen, and the force appointed by the city, are both on duty. The station-houses are the custody of the Mayor's force, and no prisoners arrested by the "Metropolitans" will find their way to the dim recesses of these miniature jails. On the other hand, our indiscriminate jailor forbids the entry of any parties arrested by the old policemen, and, as far as possible, the private nature of the place, they dashed into the little apartment and found it empty; the window was up and the bird song. The train was immediately stopped and a vigorous pursuit through the woods, without avail. The instant the old policemen, who had been sent to arrest the people to whom they had been entrusted to the people in so many different forms, shifting and changing from time to time, that the religious system which has this character, and which has its own permanent element of success in the end of which we are speaking.
